India Re-elected as a Member of the UN Peacebuilding Commission

- The United Nations Peacebuilding Commission (PBC) is actively working to restore peace in violence-affected countries.
- The commission comprises 31 member states, selected from three principal organs of the UN.
- In addition, nations that provide financial aid and contribute troops are also included as members.
- India plays a leading role among the troop-contributing nations.
- India has deployed approximately 6,000 military and police personnel in countries such as the Central African Republic, Cyprus, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Lebanon, the Middle East, Somalia, Darfur, South Sudan, and Western Sahara.
